

Miss Mary Baldwin of Newport is visiting her sister, Mrs. G. W. Hazard and her son, Dr. Francis W. Hazard, Jr. She has moved her family from Vergennes to G. W. Hazard's tenement and will work for Mr. Hazard the coming season. Miss Antoinette Desautels of the Burlington high school spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Desautels, returning to Burlington Monday morning. Mrs. Desautels is the mother of the family to Lake Placid, N. Y., sometime this month, where he has employment for the season.

ST. GEORGE.

Miss Mildred White of Burlington spent the weekend at her home—Mrs. Miranda White. Miss White is again confined to her bed. Mrs. W. H. Hunsdale spent Sunday in Burlington. Mr. and Mrs. Hunsdale, who are the parents of Charlotte, visited at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Albert Cook, Sunday. The exercises for Washington's birthday, which have been postponed twice on account of the illness of the teacher, Mrs. Belle Hatchelder, were held Friday evening in the schoolhouse. There was a large company of parents and friends of the children. The program was pleasing and interesting and was well carried out by the children.

HINESBURG.

Marvin Monahan cut his left hand off Saturday while sawing wood with a circular saw for Jack Georges. A circular stick drew his hand across the saw. Dr. J. C. Murphy took him to the hospital at Burlington. A. Tracy has purchased and moved on to the farm recently owned by A. B. Morrill, 2nd. The purchase price was $2,300, including a team and seven cows. State Superintendent M. S. Stone addressed a large meeting in the town hall Friday night on "The Desirability of an Agricultural High School in This State." Mrs. O. N. Taylor, teacher of the grammar school with two school boys of her pupils visited Port Ellen Allen Saturday. Nineteen high school pupils enjoyed a sleigh ride to Burlington Saturday. Mrs. Julia Pelton, who has made her home with Mrs. Caroline D. Wood for several years, is very low with a heart trouble. Mrs. O. N. Taylor, teacher of the King's Daughters will meet Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Guy Toole.

Henry Goodrich has moved into the Thompson place in the village. Albert Isham has moved to the Burton Rylington farm and will carry it on this year. J. C. Collier, who has been carrying on a farm near Vergennes, has moved in with Mrs. C. D. Wood and will carry on her farm. C. W. Pierce has cut 8,000 feet of basswood lumber on his place this winter.

JERICHO.

James Lee Wells was born in Jericho July 22, 1882, and died February 22, 1916, in Chicago. He was married to Miss Laura M. Cutting of Northfield. He is survived by his wife and one daughter, Marion; also by his mother, Mrs. Sybil Wells of Jericho and two brothers, Frederick of Oakland, Cal., and George of New York. The deceased was with the Vermont Marble company at Proctor for two years, after which he became general manager of the firm of Bliss and McLaughlin, Inc., which position he had held for 19 years. He was a member of A. P. & A. M., No. 88, and the National Council of Illinois, and a member of the Sons of the American Revolution. The funeral services were held at the Oakwood chapel, Chicago, February 27, under the auspices of the Masonic Order, No. 88. The Episcopal prayer service was used. The Rev. George Natus officiated. The floral offerings were many and beautiful. The members of the office force attended in a body, also a delegation from the millinery company. The body was brought to Jericho for burial in the family lot March 3. There were services at the home of his mother, Mrs. Sybil Wells, the Rev. Stanford officiating. Two solos were beautifully rendered by Fred Perival. The bearers were Max Russell, Herbert Hutchinson, Max Kinney, Warren Baxter, Ernest Gould, and William King. Those from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. George B. Wells of New York, Bella Spofford of Burlington and Earl Putting of Northfield. Miss Florence Buxton was an over-Sunday visitor in Middlebury. Miss Louisa Blood is confined to her bed, threatened with pneumonia. Mrs. Myrtle Kinney, who teaches in Cambridge, is enjoying a well-earned vacation. Miss Milla Eaton of Fair Haven is visiting Mrs. Edith Perry for a few days at the home of Lorenzo N. Rice. Mrs. Willis Brown of Jeffersonville was called home on account of the illness of her mother, Mrs. John Schillhammer, who is quite sick with the grip. Those who will be in the family lot were Mrs. William Cashmore and daughter, Mary, Mrs. Warren Day, Miss Mary Adrien, Esther Stevens, Norman Day, Charles Hawley and V. G. Noyes. Miss Edith Perry was in Essex Junction Saturday on business. Mrs. and Miss E. T. Scott of Dudley, Mass., are visiting relatives in town. Byron N. Clark of Burlington will spend at the Baptist Church Thursday at eight o'clock in the interest of the boy scouts. Mrs. Ernest Gono is ill. Mr. and Mrs. George Wells, who were called here for the burial of his brother, Lee, left Sunday evening for their future home in Detroit. N. Y. Miss Mary Annan was a visitor of her cousin, Miss Annie Carroll, over Sunday at Essex Junction. Mrs. Frank Baker, who has been ill, is able to be up. The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schillhammer, who has been quite sick with the grip, is better. The high school pupils will present their fare in the town hall. The Dutch Detachment Thursday evening. A session of Cambridge was an over-Sunday visitor at the home of his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Blahdell. Mrs. Ben Merrill and daughter of Underhill are visiting at the home of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. William Jackson. Mrs. Martha Mead was called home from Burlington to care for her mother, Mrs. Bismarck, who is ill with the grip. Mrs. M. E. Merrill, who is the wife of the late Mr. Merrill of Jericho Center, has moved to Winooski. Mrs. Merrill has not been making butter for the past few days on account of an accident to the engine and other machinery. Mr. and Mrs. Irving Thompson of Essex are moving into their new home recently purchased of E. T. Scott.

SOUTH BURLINGTON.

The King's Daughters met Wednesday with Mrs. John Stewart. Mr. Isham has moved to the Burlington farm in Hinesburg, which he will carry on the coming year. H. F. Jones has moved from Jericho to the Tilly farm on Fourth street. Mrs. E. B. Brown and Mrs. W. S. Heath were called to Wolcott Saturday on account of the illness of Mrs. W. H. Heath. A birthday party was held at the Knights of Pythias hall in Burlington Feb. 28 for W. W. Aldrich, which was well attended. He received several nice presents. A farewell party was given at the home of Mrs. E. B. Brown and Mrs. W. S. Heath Saturday night by about 50 of their friends and neighbors. Refreshments were served and Mr. and Mrs. Prior were presented with a purse of money. Mr. and Mrs. Prior will move to Williston this week, where they have purchased a farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Yantz have moved to the Reynolds farm which Mr. Prior vacated. Miss Laura Gardner of Huntington Center visited her sister-in-law, Mrs. Frank Gardner, last week.

WEST BOLTON.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bacon are recovering from an attack of the grip. G. W. Woodworth cut his foot while chopping in the woods Friday. Mrs. G. W. Streeter, who has been in poor health for some time, was taken worse Sunday morning and died at her home at 10 o'clock. Her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Robert Streeter, is caring for her. David Smith, who has been ill with the grip and threatened with pneumonia, is better. Mrs. Agnes Riley is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. B. York. There was a dance at Albert Streeter's Tuesday night. Bert Streeter has been called to Grandville by the illness of his father. There was a small attendance at town meeting Tuesday. The terrible case of Monday night and Tuesday forenoon making the roads almost impassable.

WEST MILTON.

A party was held at Charles Sanders' home Monday night, given by the school for the pupils and teachers of the Milton high school, from which he will soon graduate. Refreshments were served. Benjie Froom and Tony Mercer were in Burlington recently on business. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lawton from South Hero visited Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sloum the day of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Edith Sibley visited at C. E. Cogswell's Sunday. Mrs. Belle Granger is better from her recent illness. Mrs. Irving McCall of Brooklyn, N. Y., has come to stay some time with her sister, Mrs. Albert Froom.

MILTON BORO.

Russell and Deway McCall spent Tuesday and Wednesday at the home of their mother, Mrs. John Cameron. They brought Thomas Sheahan's tenement house and moved there. George Stanley spent Tuesday night at home returning to Burlington Wednesday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Day Berry spent Sunday at West Milton. The guests of Miss Mildred Blake. Marion Stanley was at home from Belvidere Free Academy over Sunday.

WILLISTON.

The Tenderfoot and second class scouts will meet at the club room on Friday evening for instruction in scouting. The last entertainment under the auspices of the King's Daughters Circle will be held at the Universalist hall next Monday evening. It will be a reading by Miss Sage. Henry Hart, who was taken suddenly over ill last week, is gaining slowly. All the town schools closed Friday for the winter term except the high school, which had two days and a half to make up this week on account of teachers being ill. Joseph Bonnard, who has been lumbering in Johnson the last six weeks, returned to his home here Saturday. Mrs. Ella Mosher, who was stopping with Mrs. Cady the past few weeks, has returned to her home here. Robert Arms has been out all the past two weeks at his home in Burlington. George Small, who has been living on North street, is moving to his brother's in north part of the town. Joseph Brothers will move his family to Muddy brook in a few weeks.

JONESVILLE.

The Lenten-day will meet at the home of Mrs. J. B. Allen Thursday for serving. Mrs. Allen Sabina underwent an operation at the Fanny Allen hospital Saturday. Edward Jennings had his hand badly injured last week while handling a cartridge. Dr. Ennis took him at once to the Fanny Allen hospital. Mrs. G. W. Palmer has returned from Moretown. A. F. Crandall has sold his farm to Mr. Brewster of Richmond. James Whitten is now confined to the house suffering from mumps.

RICHMOND.

Patrick Larnier, brother of Thomas Larnier, formerly of Burlington, died yesterday in Richmond, where he has lived and carried on the Larnier home farm. He was 72 years old. The following town officers were elected Tuesday: Moderator, E. J. Nichols; clerk, Green; treasurer, M. D. Dinkley; school director, E. E. Pelt; school director, D. Dinkley; road commissioner, M. O. Goodrich; overseer of the poor, John Culligan. Miss Rose Donaway entertained the bridge club at the home of Mrs. Jennie Gault Tuesday evening. Mrs. George Gault entertained the All-Borough bridge club Wednesday. March 15. The Jewish Grange visited the local order at their regular meeting Monday evening. Richard Burke and daughter were in St. Albans Tuesday to attend the funeral of a relative.

UNDERHILL.

The funeral of Mrs. Judson Clark was held Friday at 8 o'clock at the Methodist Church. The Rev. M. Sturges officiating. Burial was in the village cemetery. Among those from out of town to attend the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lamson and John Clark of Burlington, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Goodrich of Fairfax and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Johnson of Hyde Park. The Ladies Aid of the church held Friday at the parish house. The junior class of the high school is rehearsing for a play, to be given St. Patrick's night, at G. A. R. hall. The Pythian Sisters of Underhill are to celebrate on the evening of March 16 in Pythian hall the eighth anniversary of the founding of Mizpah Temple, No. 14, located here. A program has been prepared for the evening's entertainment. Charles Hinkle of Jeffersonville is moving into Harry Jackson's tenement at Riverside.

UNDERHILL CENTER.

James Thompson died early Friday morning at the home of his sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Pollard, after a few days' illness with pneumonia. A funeral service was held at the home Saturday afternoon. The body was taken to Jasson, where it was interred. The funeral was conducted by Augustus N. Pollard, a nephew. Moore E. Chase has sold his village property to Jasson Chapter.

WESTFORD.

Fred A. Gnox died at his home Thursday afternoon at three o'clock in his 24th year. He had been in poor health for several days and had two attacks of grip this winter, which he overcame. He was unable to rally. The funeral services were held at the Baptist Church Sunday at 1:30 p. m. He leaves a wife, Jessie Porter Gnox, two children, Charlotte and Beatrice; three brothers, Curtis, James and Ernest of Essex Junction; and two sisters, Mrs. J. L. Olson of this town and Mrs. Sadie Howard of Philadelphia.

FRANKLIN COUNTY.

ST. ALBANS.

Louis Young, aged 71 years, died Thursday morning at eight o'clock at the hospital from the effects of a stroke of paralysis, suffered some time ago. Mr. Young is survived by his wife, three sons, George and Edward of Johnsonville and Frank H. and by two daughters, Mrs. Edward Blodh of Newport and Mrs. Mose Deary of Johnsonville. The funeral was held at Holy Angels Church Saturday morning at eight o'clock. Mr. Young was a member of A. R. Harbison Post, No. 69, G. A. R. The remains of Miss Nellie Clark, who died February 28 at her home in Brattleboro, were brought here Wednesday evening and funeral services were held at the undertaking rooms of C. R. McAllister on North Main street Thursday afternoon at three o'clock. The Rev. D. J. O'Sullivan officiated and the burial took place in Holy Cross cemetery. Miss Clark, who was 44 years old, is survived by one sister, Mrs. E. Reynolds of Springfield, Mass., who accompanied the remains here, and two brothers, John Clark of Burlington and Patrick Clark of Highgate Springs.

Mrs. Ellen Louise (Rabson) Boaz, wife of Thomas A. Boaz of Richmond, died at the hospital in this city Wednesday evening of last week following an operation performed Tuesday morning. She had been in ill health for some time. The funeral was held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at St. Luke's Church. The Rev. G. W. Smith officiating. The body was placed in the vault at the South Main street cemetery.

At the annual meeting of the St. Albans Farmers' club held at the town hall at the Bay Wednesday, March 1, H. K. Brooks was elected president for the year ending March 1. In address illustrated by stereopticon views, given by County Agent Guy T. Tiffany. The Ironclad Community club served refreshments.

Hiram N. Lampron, aged 45 years, of Cedar street, died suddenly Saturday afternoon about three o'clock at the hospital, where he was taken after he while walking along Church street. Mr. Lampron was a conductor on the Central Vermont railway about 30 years, being employed on the main line and later on the Rouses Point division. He was city overseer of the poor about 3 years. He is survived by his wife, five sons, Leonard Hiram, Chester H. and Victor Clark, all of whom are in the service of the Canadian government, and of Schreiber, Ont., and Stephen N. of Springfield, Mass., and three daughters, Mrs. W. O. Campbell and Mrs. George A. Lepper of this city and Mrs. Annie Ring of White River Junction. The funeral was held at St. Luke's Church Tuesday morning at 9:30 o'clock. The Rev. G. W. Smith officiating and the remains were taken to the train south at 10:50 o'clock to White River Junction for burial. The funeral was held under Masonic auspices.

Funeral services for Mrs. Thomas A. Boaz of Richmond, who died suddenly Wednesday, March 1 at the hospital in this city, where she underwent an operation Tuesday morning, were held at St. Luke's Church Saturday afternoon at two o'clock. The Rev. George W. Smith officiating. The choir sang two hymns. The bearers were G. S. Wright, H. K. Dickinson, M. S. Bostwick and John P. Locke and the remains were placed in the vault of the South Main street cemetery. Among the friends present from out of town were L. L. McClary of Sutton, P. Q., and Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Greene of Richmond. Mrs. Ellen Louise (Rabson) Boaz was born in West Malling, Eng., and resided near that place until her marriage November 21, 1881, at St. Mildred's Church, Kent, England. The family name was Boaz of London. The late Mrs. Boaz, when they moved to Canada, living in Abercorn and Sutton, P. Q., about eight years, when they moved to Richmond in 1902. She was in her 60th year and is survived by her husband, one son, Herbert W. Boaz of Richmond, two daughters, Mrs. A. M. Kent and Miss Marie Boaz of this city, the latter a teacher in the city schools. She is also survived by her father, David Rabson, who passed his 50th birthday anniversary March 2; three brothers, Henry, Charles and Walter Rabson, and five sisters, Mrs. George Ravenscroft, Mrs. Walter Feggen, Mrs. Robert Feggen, Mrs. Robert Rabson, Mrs. Sydney Ashley, all reside in England, except Mrs. Ashley, whose home is in Lewistown, Sask.

News has been received that William H. Ward, formerly connected with the Woolworth store in this city, has been appointed manager of that company's store at Waterbury, Conn. Mr. Ward, aged 29 years, wife of Robert J. Walker of Lake street, died Sunday morning about eleven o'clock of Bright's disease at the hospital, where she was taken early Saturday morning for treatment. Besides her husband she is survived by five children and by her mother, Mrs. Nelson Gilbert of J. J. Thompson, youngest daughter of J. J. Thompson of North Main street, and Irving E. Bronson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred P. Bronson of Lincoln avenue, were married at St. Mary's Church Monday morning at eight o'clock. The Rev. D. J. O'Sullivan performing the ceremony. Miss Jeanne Peterson, daughter of the late Mr. Peterson of this city, was the best man. Mrs. James Homan, organist, and Miss Gertrude Leach, soloist, played the wedding marches. The bride wore a white tulle dress and coat and a silver lace hat and carried white lilies. Bridesmaids wore a dress of rose and blue. Bridesmaids carried pink roses. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Frank H. Shoburn, served breakfast at her home on North Main street to the members of the immediate families. The bride received a large number of gifts. Her gift to the bridesmaid was a sapphire pendant and the groom's gift to the best man was a sterling silver cigarette case. Among the relatives present from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Thompson of Rutland, Mr. and Mrs. Bronson left at 10 o'clock for Montreal, on their return they will reside on South Main street.

The marriage of Miss Yvonne C. Hope, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Hope of Congress street, to Leo L. Ledoux, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ledoux of South Main street, took place at St. Mary's church Monday morning at six o'clock. The ceremony being performed by the Rev. D. J. O'Sullivan. The bride wore a blue traveling suit with hat to match and a bunch of violets. Her bridesmaid, Miss Catherine N. English of this city, wore blue with hat to match. Bridesmaids carried pink roses. Rudolph Ledoux, a brother of the groom, acted as best man. The bride received many gifts. Mr. and Mrs. Ledoux left at 6:50 o'clock for a trip in the southern part of the State. They will reside in this city.

Miss Denise Remillard and Joseph Perron of this city, and Miss Delvina Olivera and Francis Remillard of Montreal, were married at Holy Angels Church Monday morning at 6:30 o'clock. The Rev. L. B. Desrochers performing the ceremony. The condition of J. O. Smith, yardmaster for the Central Vermont railway, who suffered severe injuries Monday evening, is better. He is now in the hospital, a freight car and the platform at D. H. Whiting & Sons and his hip and back were injured. He was taken to his home on upper Velden street.

Miss Kate Brennan, aged 21 years, died at her home on Nason street yesterday morning at 9:30 o'clock after only a few days' illness, death being caused by a cerebral hemorrhage. She is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Brennan, and three brothers, James, John Brennan, Thomas of Middlebury and Frederick of Northfield. The funeral will be held at St. Mary's Church Friday morning at nine o'clock.

The funeral of Peter Brandy, aged 60 years, who died Tuesday afternoon at his home on Adams street of arteriosclerosis, will be held at Holy Angels church this morning at nine o'clock. Burial will be in Mount Calvary cemetery. Mr. Brandy had been employed in the Central Vermont railway shops about 30 years. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Edward Richard and Mrs. Paul Shepard of this city, and four sons, Frank Brandy of Swanton, Louis, Arthur and Charles of this city.

A farmers' club of about 20 members was organized at Fairfax Tuesday afternoon by County Agent Guy T. Tiffany of this city. E. E. Goodrich was chosen president and A. N. Southard secretary. These officers appointed a board of directors consisting of M. E. Shedd, R. H. Burk, Asa Wilkins, Leonard Leach and S. H. Wright. It was arranged to hold eight demonstrations the coming summer.

EAST GEORGIA.

John McGrath has had several men and teams busy the past week filling his new ice-house putting in about 50 tons. William Maxwell took a plunge in the river while bathing on the other day. Charles Barker began his second season for John McGrath's farm. Henry King is able to be out again. Leman Bevin has moved into the house recently vacated by Henry Jerry and has commenced work for Ryan Brothers. Glenn Shattley has begun work for Ryan Brothers, occupying the house recently vacated by E. J. Bellows. The condition of Mrs. J. E. Ryan, who is in a hospital at Burlington, is much improved and she is expected home this week. Fred Wells of Cambridge and Miss Frances Flag of New Haven, Conn., visited Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Leach Sunday.

MONTGOMERY.

The subject next Sunday morning at the Methodist Episcopal church will be "Naboth's Vineyard, a Parable Addressed to children. Respect to Othello's evening subject, 'Two Ideals.' The interment of Hardy Baker took place Friday afternoon. The officiating minister being Rev. J. E. Goodrich. Mr. and Mrs. Mary Lambra has gone to Concord to visit relatives for a few weeks. Miss Lucy Parker is at home from Sheldon. Mrs. Robert Mouze and son are in Newport. Terry Soutter has resumed his duties on the Pratt farm after his vacation. Madame Ducl is ill.

MONTGOMERY CENTER.

The following town officers were elected Tuesday: Moderator, E. S. Wright; clerk, C. A. Gardiner; treasurer, E. S. Wright; selectmen, A. R. Gates, E. S. Wright, C. M. Foley; overseer, J. R. Dodge; assessors, C. P. Berry, B. H. Jewett, William Moffatt; road commissioner, J. J. LaFrank; school directors, E. S. Wright, Emerson Gibbs, Miss Josie Marchant, Mrs. H. H. Johnson, Mrs. J. E. Wright, G. B. Fuller, W. S. Parlier, Sheridan Dow. Total tax voted $2.30. The town voted to refuse to appropriate any money for permanent roads.

BERKSHIRE.

Miss Mamie Dolan of Swanton is visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. M. B. Dolan, in this city. The Dolans are visiting in Bakersfield. Mrs. L. Frances Jolley, D. D. G. M. of the O. E. S., visited the Essex Junction chapter Tuesday evening and Fairfax chapter Wednesday evening. James Farrar and family of Richmond took possession of the Sarah Foster farm which they recently bought. Tuesday the following town officers were elected Tuesday: Moderator, W. S. Riddle; town clerk and treasurer, C. A. Bowen; road commissioner, (East), P. A. Benjamin; (West), G. D. Paxman; school director, L. R. Larabee; liter, E. C. Weld; selectman, C. S. Chaffee; overseer of poor, B. H. Conings; auditors, H. E. Weld, R. H. Pond, C. S. Chaffee, A. C. Derby; town agent, P. J. Moren; town grand jurors, W. W. Bowen, H. E. Conings; petit jurors, W. M. Armstrong, A. W. Paxman, G. H. Pomeroy, L. W. Kinney, S. B. Marvin, Leon Thompson; county grand jurors, H. A. Chaffee, W. S. Riddle, A. J. Mowday. Tax voted, $1.90. License vote, vote 21, no 12.

EAST BERKSHIRE.

The women of Calvary Church will meet during Lent on Wednesday afternoons with Mrs. C. M. Riddle to sew for St. Ann's mission. New Brookland, South Carolina. Mrs. Lucien Wilson is ill with pneumonia. Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Bennington, who have been visiting here, will leave for New York City this week. Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Peterson attended the ministerial meeting at Essexburg Feb. 26. Miss Lella Murray of Hill was visited at H. J. Jencks Saturday. Mrs. Robert Bruce, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Jencks, has returned. Hazel Wells of St. Albans, Mass., visited at Jencks the past week. News has been received of the serious illness of Miss Florence Rose of St. Johnsbury, formerly of this place. Mr. and Mrs. John Labare of Berkshire visited at H. J. Jencks Wednesday. Word has been received of the death of Mrs. Emily Royce of Sutton, who for several years lived with Miss E. M. Royce of this place. Miss Leonard Carpenter of Essexburg Falls visited her grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Smith, last week. C. R. Ward is passing the week in Burlington. Mrs. C. R. Ward and children are passing the week in Richmond with Mrs. Ward's sister, Mrs. E. R. Holmes.

WEST BERKSHIRE.

At the annual town meeting the following officers were elected: Moderator, W. S. Riddle; town clerk, C. A. Bowen; school commissioner, L. B. Larabee; liter, E. C. Weld; selectman, C. S. Chaffee; road commissioner, (East), A. Benjamin; (West), H. E. Conings; auditors, R. H. Pond, C. S. Chaffee, A. C. Derby; town agent, P. J. Moren; town clerk, 122 no. 21 yes.

Under the auspices of the Men's Sunday school class, District Superintendent Rev. W. B. Dukes, will give a lecture at the Methodist Episcopal church Friday at 7:30. The entertainment given by the L. A. society was well patronized considering the sickness and other attractions. The sum of $17.40 was realized. Mrs. E. A. Austin is visiting for a few days at the home of her son, H. A. Austin, in Bakersfield. G. E. Edmunds has moved to a farm recently purchased in North Berks. Peter Felderman is moving to Richmond. E. A. Austin was in Richmond Sunday. Frontier Grange, No. 26, exemplified the first and second degrees on five cau-didates, reinstated three members, and received one member by card at their last meeting.

FRANKLIN.

Fred Welton has bought of Edson and Lulu Wilder their farm here. News was received Friday of the death in New York of Mr. Gebhart, husband of Miss Gebhart. Mr. Gebhart has been a resident of John Bolo his barber shop, pool room and ice cream parlors. He took possession Monday morning. Orson Wright spent the week with his son, Dr. W. H. Wright, in Georgia. John Bolo has purchased the stock of the town and hardware of M. E. Tittemore. Several of the young people were invited to the home of Fred Welton Tuesday evening, it being his sister, Ruth's, 18th birthday. Mr. and Mrs. Edson Wilder returned to Sharon Saturday afternoon.

FLETCHER.

The following is a list of officers elected at the town meeting: Moderator, E. L. Smith; clerk and treasurer, W. E. Shepherdson; selectman for two years, E. L. Smith, for three years, Laurence Salome; overseer of the poor, D. S. Gilliam; constable, E. T. Flanders; road commissioner, C. H. Scott; school director, F. A. Kezer; liter, A. H. Hooper; trustee public money, W. S. Shepherdson; auditor, W. S. Church, A. W. Gilligan, J. A. Hooper; town grand jurors, T. G. Ryan; county grand jurors, E. L. Leach, H. G. Decamp, W. H. Heardsley, C. F. Corne, Lewis Tatro; voted $30 for repairing back roads; tax $2.35. Michael Bozon and sister, Annie, visited in Johnson Saturday. Lewis Clark has commenced work for A. W. Gilligan.

RICHFORD.

Benjamin Goodrich, aged 15 years, died of pneumonia at his home on Troy street, March 1. Mr. Goodrich was born in Canada, but had resided in this place for many years. He is survived by his wife, who is in feeble health. The funeral service was held in All Saints' Catholic church Friday morning at nine o'clock. An interment was in the cemetery on the Berkshire road. Word was received Thursday morning of the death of Mrs. Thomas Boaz, who was operated on at the St. Albans hospital Tuesday morning.

A train of 41 cars loaded with war automobiles for the French and English armies passed through this place last week over the Canadian Pacific railway. Fred C. Wheeler went Sunday to Lowell, Mass., where he will visit at the home of his sister, Mrs. E. G. Livingston, thence to Boston to attend the New England automobile show. The Rev. W. B. Dukes, District Superintendent of St. Albans, preached in the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday. Miss Celesta Bates went Friday to New York, where she will purchase millinery goods for the spring season. W. C. Campbell went last night to Malden, Mass., where he will visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taylor. Mrs. Arthur S. Baker of Montreal was a visitor in this place last week, and from here went to Montpelier, where she will visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. M. B. Barker. Leach, Mrs. Mattie Crouch of Boston, is visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. L. B. Parker. Miss Augustine Hurtubise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Hurtubise, and Martin P. Donlon were married Monday morning at 6:30 o'clock by the Rev. Joseph Lavigne at All Saints' Catholic church. They will reside in this place. The Rev. G. G. Guest preached in Essex Junction Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Hardy went Saturday to Boston, where they will pass a week at the automobile show, after which they will visit relatives in Providence, Springfield, Worcester and New York city before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Sargent went Sunday to Boston, where they will attend the New England automobile show. Miss Dorothy Weeks of St. Albans visited at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Weeks, over Sunday. C. H. Allen went to Boston Tuesday night to attend the New England automobile show. Mrs. E. L. Austin of New York City visited at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Weeks, over Sunday. C. H. Allen went to Boston Tuesday night to attend the New England automobile show. The Richmond high school faculty entertained the Essexburg Falls faculty in the high school building Friday evening. A song, Richard Taylor was born to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Taylor in Alton, Mass. Saturday. Mrs. Taylor will be remembered as Miss Katherine Hopkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Fay Hopkins.

SWANTON.

John O. Day of Montreal is the guest of his brother, M. O. Day. Mrs. H. Bellows will visit at the home of her mother, Mrs. Agnes' Guild are to present soon a four act drama. The Warwick male quartet gave the fourth entertainment of the lecture course Wednesday, March 1 at a crowded house. The next and last of the course will be the Oxford company, who were here last year and who will appear here again. An annual meeting of the Swanton Farmers' club recently held at the town hall. County Agent Tiffany gave a talk with lantern slides. After the lecture the following officers were elected: President, S. W. Ellis; secretary, Howard Decker; advisors, committee, M. B. Taylor, Jay Bullard, Bernard Howard and J. H. Catlin. The game of hockey was played at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Peterson in favor of the Swanton S. S. The annual village meeting will be held March 14. The trustees to be elected in place of E. B. Colburn, whose term of three years has expired. A chief engineer, treasurer, collector of taxes and three auditors will be elected. The sixth article in the warning letters to development of the electric plant at Highgate and the seventh says, to see if the village will install a system of public accounting. In coming from the lecture course entertainment March 1 Mrs. T. M. Tobin was accidentally tripped in the crowd as she stepped to the walk and fell, striking her hip. She was carried to the home of A. G. Warner, a doctor called, and finally was taken home. It was thought at first that her hip was broken and while not as bad as that it is a painful injury that will confine her to the bed for some time. The next day her grandson, who makes his home with her, called home from school and the doctor Friday decided it was a case of diphtheria and the house is quarantined.

BAKERSFIELD.

The town schools closed Friday of last week for the spring vacation. The Misses Anna and Marion Brady entertained their pupils at their home Friday afternoon. March 2. "The New Britainer," given by the students of Brigham Academy March 3 was a success, over $50 being realized. Much credit is due Miss Emily Carpenter, under whose direction the opera was given. News has been received of the death of Mrs. Mable Perry, at her home in Springfield. Mrs. Perry was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Perry of this place. Mr. and Mrs. Perry were in Springfield for the spring. A. O. Boucher has gone to Dunham, P. Q., to visit relatives for a few days.

At the town meeting Tuesday the following officers were elected: Moderator, H. F. Brigham; town clerk, C. H. Wheelock; school director, Frank Brady; selectman, B. A. Starr; liter, A. C. Wells; road commissioners, Haskell Mayo, I. H. Stone; overseer of poor, O. A. Field; town treasurer, C. H. Wheelock; auditors, D. B. Cowan, J. L. Cutting, E. H. Brigham, constable, E. A. Starr; town agent, H. F. Brigham; cemetery commissioner, E. L. Perkins; committee of Brigham Academy, Leon Wells; trustee of public funds, Dr. W. B. Hyde. Tax voted, 70 cents for town expenses, 55 cents for schools, 55 cents for roads, 5 cents for snow work.

EAST FAIRFIELD.

Schools closed here Friday for the spring vacation. William Yando has moved his family to Swanton to reside. Mrs. Mary Northon, who has been during the winter, residing with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hand, has moved back to St. Albans. Miss Sarah E. Hale is entertaining her sister, Mrs. David Wood, of Hartford, Conn. Present visitors at the E. C. Goodrich home are their daughter, Mrs. George Wilcox of Concord, N. H., and Frank Northrop of Sheldon. Mrs. Callahan's brother, Steve B. Anderson of St. Albans passed Sunday at the A. J. Pomeroie home. Brannon McGinn, head clerk in the W. S. Soule & Son's store, went to St. Albans Saturday to take the civil service examination.

FAIRFAX.

Mrs. H. O. Wilkins spent the week-end in Burlington, the guest of her brother and sister, Don Chapman and Mrs. D. Church. Several from this place attended the funeral of Floyd Grow in Westford Sunday. Mrs. Grow formerly lived here for a time. Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Pelly of Westford called on friends here Saturday. Mrs. W. D. Stewart was in Burlington Saturday. Mrs. Hester Dunbar has returned from New Hampshire, where she was called by the illness and death of her brother.

The following town officers were elected Tuesday: Moderator, W. D. Stewart; town clerk, George Lawton; school director, Dr. W. B. Hyde; liter, W. S. Phelps; liter, George Huntley; selectman for three years, C. D. Orton; road commissioner, R. L. Sweeney, North part; overseer of poor, C. C. Gillette; collector of taxes, C. C. Gillette; trustee of U. S. deposit fund, F. W. Shephardson; treasurer, George Lawton; auditors, H. O. Wilkins, Harry Craft, L. L. Potter, grand jurors, H. S. Efford, D. A. Webster, T. F. Ryan; first constable, C. C. Gillette; second constable, Henry Donnelly; town agent, H. O. Wilkins; trustee, W. A. Dr. S. H. Phelps, free warden, A. N. Greiner; trustee library, Mrs. W. A. Efford. Voted $20 to Ladies' Village Improvement society for street lights. Voted $32. Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Leach have returned from Vergennes, where they visited their daughter, Mrs. Corey. Miss Helen Leach has gone on a business trip to New York.

ENOSBURG.

Eugene Perley was in this place last week buying lumber of A. C. Call to build a barn to replace the one burned about three years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Edeline daughter of A. and Mrs. J. B. Raymore, who has been seriously ill with poison, is more comfortable. Julianna, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. S. V. Vradenburg, met with a painful accident recently while she and her brother, Paul, were splitting kindling, cutting her so badly that several stitches had to be taken to close the wound.

SHELDON.

Mrs. R. Hunter has returned to her home in Fitchburg, P. Q. The village school closed Friday for a six week vacation. Homer Fairbanks, who has been quarantined for three weeks with scarlet fever, is improving and released from quarantine. H. H. Mower is confined to the house by illness. James Mackin of St. Albans was a business visitor in town March 2. Horace Ripley is ill.

GRAND ISLE COUNTY.

NORTH ALBURG.

The Kinyon Concert Company of Elmira, N. Y., is to